Materials & Resources Credit Building Product Disclosure & Optimization

Environmental Product Declarations (EPD)

Roseburg can be considered 1 manufacturer (5 required by the credit) and each of our LVL and I-Joist products that are permanently installed in the building can contribute as ½ product, due to our participation in the industry-wide EPDs for LVL and I-Joist. Each application of the product can count as ½ product. Verification documents can be downloaded at www.roseburg.com
