Roseburg Forest Products announces new vice president of sales and marketing

August 23, 2010. Roseburg, OR: Roseburg announced today that Steve Killgore has accepted the position of vice president of sales and marketing.

Steve has worked in the wood products industry for over 30 years in many key senior leadership roles, giving him experience in a wide range of product lines, including lumber, plywood, particleboard, MDF, and engineered wood products.

Most recently, Steve has served as president at Builder Link in Springfield, Ore. He has also served as president of both Cascade Structural Laminators and McKenzie Forest Products. In addition, he has overseen sales at both Willamette Industries and Bohemia, Inc.

“We are one of the nation’s largest producers of wood products. Our fully integrated manufacturing and broad product mix make Roseburg a very unique producer,” stated Chuck Ulik, Roseburg’s chief operating officer. “Steve’s background and experience are a perfect fit to Roseburg. We look forward to the leadership that he will bring to Roseburg’s sales team.”

Roseburg, based in Dillard, Ore., is a family owned manufacturer of engineered wood products, lumber, plywood, particleboard and specialty panels. It owns and manages timberlands in the Western United States, and operates manufacturing facilities in the Western and Southern regions of the country.
