REAL WOOD SIDING

DURATEMP® Plywood Siding, when properly stored, installed, and maintained carries a 50 year warranty. Roseburg Forest Products (“RFPCo.”) warrants that its DURATEMP® Plywood Siding will be free from manufacturing errors or defects in workmanship or materials in accordance with industry specifications. In order to assure our customers of the grade and quality of DURATEMP® Plywood Siding, RFPCo. guarantees DURATEMP® Plywood Siding with a 5-year full replacement warranty (materials and labor) and an extended 45-year warranty on materials only.

5-YEAR WARRANTY (Materials and Labor)

Within 5 years of the date of original purchase, upon producing a copy of this warranty statement and proof of purchase the bearer shall be entitled to free replacement (materials and labor) of any DURATEMP® Plywood Siding panels found to contain manufacturing errors or defects in workmanship or materials. The replacement siding will be either DURATEMP® or a comparable RFPCo. quality siding product.

45-YEAR EXTENDED WARRANTY (Materials Only)

After the 5 year anniversary but within 50 years of the date of original purchase, upon producing a copy of this warranty statement and proof of purchase the bearer shall be entitled to a discounted reimbursement for the replacement cost of materials (either DURATEMP® or any comparable RFPCo. quality siding product) for any panels found to contain manufacturing errors or defects in workmanship or materials. After the 5 year anniversary, the reimbursement will be discounted by 2.22% of the replacement costs for each year through year 50. This means RFPCo. will pay for the cost of the replacement panels less 2.22% for each year beyond year 5. For example, in year 6, RFPCo. will reimburse replacement costs minus 2.22%; in year 7, RFPCo. will reimburse replacement costs minus 4.44%, and so forth through year 50.

LIMITATIONS AND CONDITIONS

This is a limited warranty. This warranty does not cover damage or defects that occur after DURATEMP® Plywood Siding leaves RFPCo. manufacturing facilities. This includes damage or defects that are the result of improper handling, storage, extreme weather or storm damage, incorrect installation, misapplication of the product, or improper finishing. Furthermore, this warranty does not cover damage that occurs as a result of improper maintenance or neglect. This warranty applies only to the original DURATEMP® Plywood Siding and any DURATEMP® Plywood Siding used for replacement. The warranty does not apply to any replacement siding other than DURATEMP® Plywood Siding. RFPCo. reserves the right to inspect structures, or samples, of DURATEMP® Plywood Siding claimed defective under the warranty, in order to verify product identity and defect.

This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

Customers with questions, or customers seeking to redeem this warranty, should contact [shed manufacturer / DURATEMP® Plywood Siding retailer].
